ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS IN PRIZES!! MAGNIFICENT PREMIUMS! Extraordinary Inducements TO AGENTS AND POSTMASTERS!

Believing that the extensive circulation of the OHIO ORGAN in all parts of Ohio, Indiana, Tennessee, and Kentucky, and other Western and Southern States, will accomplish an immense amount of good to the cause, in preparing the minds of the people for the favorable consideration and reception of the MAINE LIQUOR LAW, and for its final ratification by them at the ballot-box, the Publisher has been induced, as an incentive to action, and as a partial return for the labor required in soliciting names for the Organ, to offer the following list of

SPLENDID PREMIUMS!

To be decided on Friday, the first day of July next. All who intend competing for these Prizes, are requested to give early notice.

A Premium of Fifty Dollars!!
 Will be awarded to that person sending in the largest number of subscribers between this time and the first of July.

A Premium of Twenty Dollars!
 Will be awarded to the person sending in the next largest number.

A Premium of Fifteen Dollars!
 For the next (third) largest.

A Premium of Ten Dollars!
 For the next (fourth) largest.

A Premium of Five Dollars!
 For the next (fifth) highest.

1,000 Maine Law Tracts!
 For the next (sixth) highest.

1,000 Cary's Appeal!
 For the next (seventh) highest.

In addition to the above Premiums to Agents, a splendid Memorial Engraving, by John Sartale, of SAMUEL F. CARY, P. M. W. P., will be awarded to the subscribers of the six lowest Premiums. And a copy of DR. BEECHER'S TEMPERANCE LECTURES, or Rev. SAM'L W. FISHER'S ADVICE TO YOUNG MEN, both splendid books, to each unsuccessful Agent sending in twenty-five subscribers and upwards.

These are all very liberal Premiums, and ought to induce every active temperance man to exert himself in circulating the Organ. WE WANT READERS FOR THE ORGAN, (which will make Maine Law men and women,) and are willing, as our list of premiums will show, to pay well for them! We think it our duty to remain perfectly silent from now until the first of July, save who will be the lucky Agents; but this much we will say in advance, whoever secures any one of the Premiums, will have to work, and that, too, from now until they are decided. All renewals will be considered as new subscribers, but no subscription for a less time than one year, will be counted.

Persons intending to compete for the premiums will give early notice, that we may enter their names in our Prize Book.

All communications must be addressed, post paid, to
CALEB CLARK,
 Ben Franklin Printing House, Cincinnati, O.

Notice.

At the recent Session of the G. D. held at Springfield, the following resolutions offered by Bro. J. Schmecker, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Grand Division of Ohio recognize the Ohio Organ of the Temperance Reform as the official organ of this body.

Resolved, That the Grand Division highly approve of the "Ohio Organ of the Temperance Reform" and recommend renewed exertions for its increased circulation.

State Convention.

The friends of temperance will assemble in a Mass Convention, at the city of Columbus, on Wednesday, the 29th day of June next, at 1 o'clock, A. M. Delegates from all parts of the State are expected to be present in large numbers. Let there be a general turn out; its deliberation will be of vital interest to the cause, and we desire it to be the largest meeting ever held in the State. By order of the State Executive Committee,
SAM'L F. CARY, Pres.

WARREN JENNINS, Sec.

Our paper is later than we desire to issue it; but we have held back, for the purpose of giving the accounts from Chicago; which will be found in another column.

Neal Dow.

It is now settled beyond a doubt that this distinguished gentleman will attend the State Convention on the 29th inst.

For the Ohio Organ.

BRO. C. CLARK:—I have received a donation of five dollars from Painesville Div., No. 539, to be appropriated to the payment of the G. D. debt. Fraternally,

Editorial Correspondence.

Chicago, June 10th, 1853.

Dear Readers:—I am here immersed in the business of the National Division. Twenty-six jurisdictions are represented. The most flattering accounts are given of the state of the Temperance cause throughout our jurisdiction. I send herewith a list of Representatives in attendance, but my time is so fully occupied, that I can not give you the details of the business transacted. Public addresses have been made by several of the members, but the great mass of the people of Chicago, think of but little else than money making.

The next session of the National Division will be held at St. Johns, in the British Province of New Brunswick. The vote was close between that place and Charleston, South Carolina. A special session was determined upon, to be held in New York, at the time of the World's Convention, in September. You will observe that the Grand Division of Ohio had but one Representative present, although every one eligible to a seat is within thirty hour's ride of Chicago. Other jurisdictions, more than 2,000 miles distant, are more fully represented. This ought not so to be.

The Hon. NEAL DOW is here, and will sojourn in Michigan until the vote on the 20th, when the Maine Law question will be decided.

He will be at the Columbus Convention on the 28th, and no mistake. THURLOW W. BROWN, of the Cayuga Chief, is also here, and is ready to labor in Ohio at such times and places as he may be required. C.

ANN HARBOR, MICH, June 13.

Reached this place on Saturday night, in time to address a mass meeting on the great question. Dr. JEWETT reached here about the same time, and followed me in some most happy remarks. Yesterday, (Sunday,) we each held two meetings, which were largely attended.

NEAL DOW is at Niles—Dr. JEWETT goes hence to Kalamazoo, and I visit Detroit, Monroe, Pontiac, &c. The entire State will soon be canvassed, and next Monday the battle is to be fought.

Prepare your big gun, for, unless I am greatly deceived, there will be a victory, such as will require the "old swivel" to be filled to the very muzzle, and thunder forth a glorious triumph. Dr. Jewett has been here three weeks, and he is pretty well jaded out; but he is a real war-horse. We can have his services next in our State. He needs but a few days' rest after the 20th. I think he will attend the State Convention the 29th, but Dow will certainly be there.

I shall not be at my post until the fight comes off in Michigan.

Yours, in haste, C.

State Convention.

In several instances we have noticed, that at county and township temperance meetings, a committee of from four to ten have been appointed to attend the State Convention. This is all wrong. Every temperance man in the State should feel it his duty, as it is his privilege, to attend this Convention. Have no substitutes, proxies, or representatives. It is a meeting of the temperance men of the State, and every one in the State should be there. This meeting is an important one, and coming as it does, on the eve of the great contest, if it be numerously attended, the greater effect it will have in our favor. There are enough friends of the cause in the State, who can attend this meeting, to make it the largest ever witnessed in the State. Come out, brethren, and give one day for the good of the State. It will be a glorious meeting, and all who fail to attend, will regret it the length of their days!

From the proceedings published in another column, it will be seen, that the citizens of Columbus are making extensive preparations for the reception of their friends. They have very generously tendered the hospitalities of their city. The latch-string is on the outside of the door, and all the friends of the cause in the State will meet with a cordial and hearty reception. Once more we call upon our friends to give one day for temperance.

Remember This!

Vote for no man for Legislator or Senator, who is not pledged to vote for a bill embodying the principles of the Maine Liquor Law. It makes no difference whether he be Democrat or Whig, if he is worthy of your confidence in this respect, give him your suffrage. One vote will have as much effect as the other. But in counties where the Democrats have the majority a Democrat, should, if possible, be selected as the recipient of your suffrages, because of that majority; and, vice versa. Let the dominant party have its right, if they will present a candidate worthy your confidence. This we conceive to be a fair and impartial course, as the friends of the cause do not expect to reap any benefits from either party as a party. But whatever you do, vote for no man who is not pledged to vote for you. Give the parties to understand this, and they will be very apt to select the right kind of candidates. Impress these things upon your neighbor, as there should be a perfect unity among the friends of the cause.

LEESVILLE, Carroll County, Ohio,
 June 11th, 1853.

BRO. CLARK: You will please state, through the columns of the Organ, to brethren of the Order, that owing to the low state of my health, which has been failing for some time, I have been unable to answer the communications addressed to me. Should my health improve again, so that I may be able to do so, I shall take the earliest opportunity to reply, giving the desired information. Until such shall be the case, I must request the forbearance of brethren, or refer them to other sources to obtain the information they desire.

Yours, fraternally,
